Career support for managers, professionals and graduates.

As well as offering our services direct to individuals, we also work closely with employers, providing support that enables redundancies to be managed more effectively with a view to securing alternative employment for employees as quickly as possible.

As our name suggests, we focus on supporting individuals - based on a clear understanding of experience, capability and potential, we provide them with specific recommendations that help to:

- Showcase skills and experience
- Create opportunities with relevant employers
- Remarket individuals in a challenging economic climate.

How we can help...

Open to everyone

OnetoOne is available to ANY manager, professional or graduate who is unemployed or at the risk of becoming unemployed. You do not have to be a current or ex-student to benefit from our services.

Career Development Workshops

Free workshops covering every aspect of career development at centres around Derbyshire and Nottinghamshire, including Derby, Chesterfield, Buxton, Mansfield and Worksop.

Coaching to create opportunities

Free, one to one coaching on networking and targeting relevant employers.

Preparation for recruitment and selection

Free help, advice and coaching to ensure that CV and interview skills are suited to competency-based recruitment and selection.

Communicating strengths

Help on communicating and shaping strengths to employers' requirements including free online industry standard psychometric assessment.

Matching employer requirements

Free mentoring by established employer mentors providing advice on professional development and matching capabilities to employer requirements.

Transferring skills

Free advice on making skills relevant and attractive to employers in different industries.

Building experience

Help to secure internships and placements to build experience and demonstrate skills and expertise.

Contact us today

If you are an employer and are having to make redundancies amongst managers, professionals or graduates, contact us today. We provide employer support that enables redundancies to be managed more effectively with a view to securing alternative employment for your employees as quickly as possible.
